BILIK I, II & III

With sophisticated, yet functional, meeting space, premium amenities, a specialized events manager, and newly debuted sensory experiences, business meetings and corporate events at The RuMa are personalized, engaging, and most importantly, anything but ordinary. On the mezzanine floor, two adjacent meeting rooms, Bilik I & II, can also be combined to create the ideal location for private dining or intimate team building events or presentations. Bilik III is perfect for exclusive business meetings or private dining experiences.

The Pavilion

The lifestyle centric Pavilion, located on The RuMa's health and wellness floor is encapsulated by open-air and sun-lit spaces. The elegant space specializes in functional events, conferences, meetings, event product showcases and launches and intimate and memorable weddings. The events at The RuMa are personalized, engaging, and most importantly, anything but ordinary. The Pavilion's multi-functional space can be divided into two private sections which are flexible enough to host any casual meetings or events.

Places of Interest

As the capital of Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur boasts a skyline decorated with gleaming skyscrapers and colonial influences. On the street level, however, the city transforms into a modern yet culturally vibrant metropolitan destination, where guests from around the world converge with charming locals for an experience unlike any other in Southeast Asia. Situated at the heart of the Golden Triangle neighbourhood, The RuMa Hotel provides access to the best of what this true world-class city has to offer. Within this increasingly expansive landscape are modern marvels and cultural attractions, from the traditional hawker stall-lined streets serving local favourites, such as Nasi Lemak and Roti Canai, to the mega-sized shopping malls Pavilion and Suria KLCC, which is housed within Malaysia's most iconic landmark, the Petronas Twin Towers.
